

Front-End Developer

Hi, I'm Kashish

Passionate About Coding.

About Me

I'm Krutika Jichkar, a passionate frontend developer and open source contributor, on a mission to craft beautiful and user-friendly digital experiences. With a deep-rooted love for web development, I find joy in bringing creative designs to life through code.

I have a strong foundation in MERN Stack and I am skilled in creating interactive and visually appealing websites.
